Dear Sirs of The Justice Department:

I would like to add my support for the Microsoft company fight against those who are trying to drag Microsoft down. I have used Microsoft products for years and, as a senior, have found them to be the best. If Microsoft's competitors had been as diligent as Microsoft has been in trying to help the consumer, with good products, I feel they would not have to go crying to the government to be bailed out. If a company puts out a good product and gives real consumer service then those companies would not have to worry about competitors.

Please, accept the Microsoft settlement, and stop further litigation. That useless waste of the courtroom money could be put to a much better use elsewhere.

Thank you for reading this E-mail --- I'm a strong user and supporter of Microsoft products and private enterprise.
